Whose Say-so Is Best?

With nearly all medicines put up for sale through druggists, one has to take the maker's say-so alone as to their curative value. Of course, such testimony is not that of a disinterested party and accordingly is not to be given the same credit as if written from disinterested motives. Dr. Pierce's medicines, however, form a single and therefore striking exception to this rule. Their claims to the confidence of invalids does not rest solely upon their makers' say-so or praise. Their ingredients are matters of public knowledge, being printed on each separate bottle wrapper. Thus invalid sufferers are taken into Dr. Pierce's full confidence. Scores of leading medical men have written enough to fill volumes in praise of the curative value of the several ingredients entering into these well-known medicines.

Amongst these writers we find such medical lights as Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennet Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Hale, of the same city; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Dr. Grover Coe, of New York; Dr. Bartholow, of Jefferson Medical College, of Pa., and scores of others equally eminent.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the worst cases of female weakness, prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion and corrects irregularities, cures painful periods, dries up disagreeable and weakening drains, sometimes known as pelvic catarrh and a multitude of other diseases peculiar to women. Bear in mind, it is not a patent nor even a secret medicine, but the "Favorite Prescription" of a regularly educated physician, of large experience in the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, who frankly and confidingly takes his patients into his full confidence by telling them just what his "Prescription" is composed of. Of no other medicine put up for woman's special maladies and sold through druggists, can it be said that the maker is not afraid to deal thus frankly, openly and honorably, by letting every patient using the same know exactly what she is taking.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

How to preserve health and beauty is told in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is free. For a paper-covered copy send Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only; in cloth binding 31 stamps.

SUICIDE OF DR. MATHEWS.

With the prospect of 20 years in prison for wife murder staring him in the face, and the decision of the Supreme Court of North Carolina against him in an appeal for a new trial, Dr. J. Baxter Mathews, of Greensboro, N. C. committee suicide with a pistol between 2 p. m. Sunday and 2 p. m. yesterday in Baltimore. He shot himself through the left temple while lying in the bed and must have died instantly. Dr. Mathews was in Baltimore under $5,000 bond pending a hearing for a new trial and had been an inmate of Mount Hope Retreat up to about September 1.

Dr. Mathews was 36 years old and leaves a son, aged nine, who is with the doctor's sister, Mrs. Gorman, in Richmond.

The doctor was to have gone to Greensboro, N. C., to again be sentenced to 20 years in prison for the murder of his wife, and his relatives and bondsmen have been searching for him for weeks. The suicide had the morphine and whisky habits and was considered by his relatives as a hopeless subject, although it was stated at Mount Hope Retreat last night that he had been discharged from there as cured.

On March 9 last, in Greensboro, N. C., Dr. Mathews was found guilty in the second degree of administering poison to his wife, Mrs. Zola Mathews, the crime having been committed on December 1, 1905. He was sentenced to 20 years in the penitentiary.

The evidence was sensational. Mrs. Mathews failed to appear among her associates for several days, and some of these made repeated efforts to visit her at her home. Each was received by Dr. Mathews, who told her that Mrs. Mathews was only slightly indisposed, but in order to hasten her recovery he had ordered absolute quiet and would allow no one to see her.

On the morning of December 1 Elward Gipman, a Pullman conductor of Philadelphia, who had long been intimate at the house, called, and when refused permission to see Mrs. Mathews brushed Dr. Mathews aside and made his way to the sick chamber.

There he was told by the stricken woman that she was being slowly poisoned by her husband. Gipman left the house and sent Mrs. Hay, a neighbor, while he summoned three physicians, among them Dr. J. P. Turner, the county coroner. The doctors diagnosed the case as a severe example of opium poisoning, and by means of powerful antidotes made heroic efforts to save her life.

Later in the afternoon, believing that their patient's end was near, they informed Dr. Mathews that his wife was dying. He wept and pleaded to be allowed to have a last word with her in private, but this the attending physicians refused to sanction, although they withdrew to another part of the room while the husband knelt at his wife's bedside. What happened then is best told in the affidavit made by the coroner, who swore out the warrant for Mathews' arrest:

"We heard Mrs. Mathews utter a low moan," declared Dr. Turner, "and hastening to the bedside I seized Mathews and found his right hand clasping that of his wife, while his left hand, which was under the coverlet, grasped a hypodermic syringe, the needle of which had been plunged into a vein of the dying woman's leg."

Lecture on Purgatory.

Another large audience greeted Rev. Xavier Sutton, the Passionist missionary, who is giving a series of lectures on the Catholic faith, at St. Ann's Church, Baltimore, last evening. His subject was "Purgatory."

"The church teaches," he explained, "that every man will be judged according to his works. Holy Scriptures declare that no one not spotless can enter heaven. Still, it is not fair to assume that because a man is not perfect when he dies he must be lost in hell. Yet heaven or hell is the final destination of everyone. Those who are once in hell can never reach heaven, while those in heaven are in no danger of hell; but purgatory is the place where those who may finally reach heaven may be purified from their sins.

"It is because reason requires this that the church teaches it. The earliest fathers taught it, and there are strong evidences in the New Testament that it was also taught by Christ himself."

Belief in purgatory was shared, he said, by all Christians up to the time of the Reformation.

"It is useless," he said, "to pray for souls in hell, because they are beyond redemption. There is no need to pray for souls in heaven, for they need no prayers. But souls not yet in heaven can, in all reason, be benefited by prayers. It is for this reason that the Catholic Church prays for deceased members".

Postmaster Robbed.

G. W. Fouts, Postmaster at Riverton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters; which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for Biliousness, Neuralgia, weakness and all Stomach, Liver, Kidney and Bladder derangements. A wonderful Tonic. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. 50 cents.

Negro Woman Honored.

In Atlanta last week an aged negress died—"Aunt" Clarissa. Following her remains to the grave were, among other vehicles, six carriages occupied by the leading white women of the community. On her grave there were piled myriads of floral tributes, the finest display of offerings of the kind ever seen in that section of the country. Twenty-five wives of farmers and business men heard the sermon, over the grave by "Aunt" Clarissa's negro pastor. The pastor, among other things said:

"Much is said of the race problem, of the present and future relations of the black men and the white men. I am willing to say that if all negroes lived the life this dead sister has lived, the race problem would be solved."

"Aunt" Clarissa was 80 years of age at the time of her death. For 50 years she had lived in one white man's service. She had cared for his wife and children and grandchildren. She was the person in the household who handled the money. She bought the household supplies. She rendered accounting to no one. She paid herself her own salary. She saved all she made. She was more than housekeeper. She was friend.

It is said that at the burial to the sobs and tears of relatives were added the manifestations of sorrow of the white women, and that the lady in whose home Clarissa had lived was deep in anguish.

This is a suggestive picture in contrast with the cry of negro orators and politicians that is heard these days—the cry of the negro who claims that his race is downtrodden by the white man. "Aunt" Clarissa lived a life of integrity, of usefulness and of uprightness. In life and in death she was accorded honor and respect.—[Augusta Chronicle.

JEWELRY.

is used oftener than almost any other room in the house. That is why it should be made the most comfortable spot, and be pleasingly arranged.

Without cut glass and silverware a dining room makes little impression and is hardly home like. A few pieces tastily arranged will make a better effect than many of them placed indiscriminately.

A silver fern dish puts a finish to the table and livens up the room. A silver set is needed to decorate the sideboard. A few cut glass pieces so arranged as to contrast with the tea set will make the sideboard as it should be. The cut glass require d are decanters, berry bowls and fruit dishes. The only other silver piece that should be in evidence is the candelabra.

If you want your dining room to be just so have the bread trays and other trays of silver. Even the crumb tray and scraper should be silver-plated.

The steel knives should have silver-plated handles to match the silver-plated spoons, knives and forks.

If you are not satisfied unless your dining-room is properly fitted, you are undoubtedly particular about your own person. It is just as well that you are. A little attention to your ownself begets attention from others. Wear a diamond ring or two, a locket, watch and chain. As the chain is more in evidence than the watch or the locket, you may as well wear the best there is—the guaranteed Z-K Gold Chain.

Let us fit out the dining-room as well as yourself. Prices very reasonable.

TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 6, 1906.

THE CAMPAIGN in 42 States for the election of the Sixtieth Congress passes into history tonight. Besides the congressional balloting 23 States will today elect Governors. Arizona and New Mexico will accept or reject a jointure in Statehood, Oklahoma and the Indian Territory will adopt a State Constitution and 20 States will choose legislatures which, in turn, will elect United States Senators. The predictions by the republican and democratic congressional committees, with headquarters, respectively, in New York and Washington, remain the same as the "finals" announced a few days ago. The republicans claim the next House by 50; the democrats claim it by 22. New York maintains her position in the limelight of public interest, and the campaign there is to be kept up until the polls close this evening. Both State committees claim the victory for their candidate by large pluralities. Reports from other sections of the country indicate alternately apathy and interest.

THE International Harvester Company having become convinced of the utility of the motor car for farmers, has decided to go into the manufacture of these machines. It will turn out a low priced air-cooled vehicle, which will be sold probably as low as $500 or $600. This car will follow the general lines of a buggy, the front wheels being forty inches and the rear forty-four inches, fitted with solid rubber tires. It will have a two-cylinder engine and will develop ten-horsepower. It will be so arranged that the rear seat can be used for carrying merchandise or farm produce. The car will have a speed of twenty miles an hour.

WASHINGTONIANS, it seems, are growing tired of idle and disorderly negroes. Maj. Richard Sylvester, chief of police, has announced his determination to break up, absolutely, the nuisance of men and women loitering on certain streets on Saturday nights. Colored men are charged with loafing in front of the numerous saloons and so congesting the pavement that walking is almost impossible. Most of the time they are intoxicated, and present such a formidable appearance that the women and children are afraid to venture out in the neighborhoods from which the complaints come.

THE LACK of candidates for the ministry has led the Presbyterian Synod to hold a day of prayer for candidates. Rev. Dr. Cochrane, of Philadelphia, said that the refusal of young men to enter the ministry was due in a measure to the fact that they could make more money otherwise. The older generation was taught that men who entered the ministry were called by God and mercenary consideration did not enter into the matter—but times change and men change with them.

FROM the meager reports of the doings of the Panama commission most of them, especially the $10,000 a year secretary, seem to spend their time on trips to and from Panama on the government ships where everything is furnished free by the taxpayers. This makes the water fly, if not the dirt, and is cheaper than living on shore. But the President will go there in a few days and may possibly show what strenuosity can do.

THAT sensational and circumstantial story about a Japanese spy sketching fortifications at Manila seems to have been a sheer invention of some anti-Japanese jingo propagandist. It looks like it, seeing that no such sketches were made, no such Japanese existed, and there was no such arrest.

THE enormous crops were, according to the republican theory, entirely due to the prosperity caused by tariff-fostered trust taxation. If the crops had been poor and business dull, why, of course, it would have been the fault of the democrats disturbing business by demanding tariff reform.

THE TAXPAYERS of Atlanta, Iowa, on November 17 will hold a special election to determine the selling of the local electric light and power plant, which has been operated at a loss for the last five years. Another instance of the failure of municipal ownership.

THE GOVERNOR has issued a Thanksgiving proclamation. Yes, the people of Virginia have much to be thankful for this year—the legislature does not meet, though the Governor neglected to mention that fact in his proclamation.

THE people of this country have had the spectacle, for the first time in history of a president bossing the election of Congress, but it may turn out that the American Congress will be as intractable as the douma.

The outlook for turkeys at Thanksgiving and Christmas is said to be encouraging, in spite of a light product at nearby points.

ALL IS over but the shouting.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Nov. 6.

Business was almost at a standstill in the government departments today. With the exception of Secretary Hitchcock, of the Interior Department, every cabinet officials is absent from his post of duty on campaign missions, or to vote. Most of them will start back for Washington this evening and several will be with the President to receive the returns at the White House. Postmaster General Corte you will return with the President from New York. At the offices of the joint-ticket agency, it was estimated that about 2,000 government clerks had gone home to vote. Of this number fully 500 went to New York State. The hegira has not been so great as in previous years on account of the failure of the railroads to give low rates. Instead of charging only one fare for the round trip, they insisted this year on a one and one-third fare. Then they made these tickets good going no later than midnight last night. The interest here in the New York fight is almost as great as in presidential elections. Elaborate arrangements have been made by the local papers for displaying and megaphoning the returns.

"Hearst will have a bigger majority than that received by Coler," declared "Boss" Murphy of Tammany Hall in conversation over the long distance telephone with Chairman Griggs, of the democratic congressional committee, in this city. "Oh! Charley, you are lying," was Chairman Grigg's exclamation. "I would not lie to you on election day," was the reply of the Tammany chieftain. "Returns from all over the city show that an enormous vote is being polled and that everything is going Hearst's way."

According to a census bureau report issued today, women wage earners are increasing steadily and are engaged in 316 of 339 industries. The greatest increase is shown for the manufacture of tobacco, cigar and cigarettes. New York State leades in the employment of women, with garment making most prominent. Pennsylvania ranks first and Massachusetts second in the number of children employed.

Disasters from Gales.

Dispatches have been pouring into Halifax, N. S., bringing news of vessels wrecked or in distress, of wires prostrated and of damage done by gale and sea along the coasts of Nova Scotia, Cape Breton, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island. Four vessels were driven ashore; another, after having everything movable on deck washed away, was forced to put back to Halifax, from which port she had sailed, and the steamer Turret Bell, which went aground on the north side of Prince Edward Island last week, was driven farther inshore. The storm was most violent in Northumberland Strait. Two schooners and one bark were swept aground on this strait, and a third schooner was wrecked near the eastern entrance.

Five members of the crew of the Norwegian bark Adeona, which was wrecked on a reef off Richibucto Bar during a heavy northeast gale last Thursday night, were drowned yesterday while attempting to make a landing on beach. The men were all Norwegians, and as there is no communication with the vessel their names are not known.

Old Churches.

POHICK CHURCH—The improvements on Pohick church, in Fairfax county, are progressing. The eastern half of the church has been furnished with new pews. A handsome reredos and pulpit with sounding board are among those things which will identify the venerable building with its early years, when Washington was one of its vestrymen. These years date back to 1769.

FALLS CHURCH—Extensive improvements have recently been made in Old Falls church, Fairfax county. A new slate roof has been completed and a very handsome floor has been put down. There is also a new and attractive chancel with brass railing. This is, in great part, a gift of the daughters of the founders and patriots. Funds are still needed for a vestry room and to repaint the walls, etc. The Bishop visited the church on October 7, preaching to a large congregation, and confirming a class of seven. The rector is zealous in his efforts to raise the money needed in beautifying the building. The old church is one of great interest in the diocese.—[Southern Churchman.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Judge Morgan J. O'Brien, presiding justice of the Appellate Court of New York, has resigned his office to head the law firm of Boardman, Platt & Dunning. His salary as a justice was $17,500 practically for life, but he says he feels that he cannot longer sacrifice his time because of his heavy expenses.

President Roosevelt cast his ballot today. He was in the voting booth ten seconds. Just as Mr. Roosevelt emerged from the election booth a photographer let off a flash light powder with a report like a cannon. Every one in the room "ducked," and the President remarked with a laugh. "That must have been an anarchist."

Unknown to their friends, Miss Marion St. Clair Whittemore, a Brooklyn, Mass., society girl, and James V. Dignowity, a young mining engineer, a graduate of Harvard, this year, and a son of James D. Dignowity, a mine owner at San Antonio, Texas, were quietly married yesterday.

A three year old drunkard was one of the cases reported by Superintendent Parker at the monthly meeting of the society for protection of children, in Baltimore. The boy was deserted by his mother, and while wandering around the neighborhood frequently was intoxicated.

With the deposition of Stuvesant Fish as president of the Illinois Central at the meeting of the board tomorrow the road will pass into the complete control of Edward H. Harriman, and the last link in the Harriman trans-continental system will have been obtained.

The Alexandria Hospital.

To the Board of Lady Managers,

I herewith submit my report as attending physician to the Alexandria Hospital for the months of June, July and August. Three died shortly after admission, four died under care of other physicians, two of the remaining died of cancer, one typhoid fever with complications, one abdominal abscess. Left under treatment, 15. On entering my first term of service I found everything running smoothly under the care of our most efficient matron, Mrs. Adameon, and my predecessor Dr. Delaney. News of the Day.

The Supreme Court has decided that white husbands of Cherokee Indians have no right to participate in the tribal fund.

Almost on the eve of her wedding Miss Lydia May Seaton, of Sharpsburg, Pa., yesterday returned a license to marry Eddie Kughen, of Pittsburg, and took out one to wed Alexander Johnston, of Mount Savage, Md.

The trial of Florinda Illario for the murder of Alex D'paolo, the contractor, of Raritan, terminated at Somerville, N. J., last night, when the jury after a deliberation of three hours entered the court and rendered a verdict of manslaughter.

The Illinois Central election is virtually over. When the directors meet Wednesday they will depose Stuyvesant Fish, president of the road for the last nineteen years, and in all probability elect J. T. Harahan, who in 1890 was made second vice president of the company through Mr. Fish's influence and has since held that place.

If a full vote is not cast in today's elections it will not be the fault of the weather, which is general clear throughout the East, and in the West except in the Mississippi valley and the north Pacific States, where a little rain is reported. Temperatures are considered about the seasonable average in the central valleys and about normal elsewhere.

While attempting to cross the tracks of the Fonda, Johnstown and Gloversville Electric Railroad, three miles east of Amsterdam, N. Y., yesterday afternoon, a rig containing Miss Lena Cook and Miss Eva Scott, of Amsterdam, was struck by a limited car, killing the occupants of the carriage. The crossing where the accident occurred is being eliminated by the construction of an overhead passage for the electric cars.

Seven persons were killed and nine were injured Sunday night at Mocha, a station on the Quito Railroad near Guayaquil, Ecuador, owing to natives meddling with the brake of a car. On the arrival of a train at Mocha, a village station opened a week ago by the American company which is building the road, the cars were surrounded by a group of people belonging to the neighborhood, who inspected the passenger car with great interest. Suddenly one of the natives, without knowing what he was doing, opened the brake, and the car which had been detached, ran back at a high rate of speed for about a mile, and it was overturned and was crushed to pieces, killing or injuring all the passengers.

Biltmore Coachmen Strike.

George W. Vanderbilt, of Biltmore House, near Asheville, N. C., has a strike on his hands. All his coachmen and drivers have quit work, demanding higher wages. All the Asheville drivers and teamsters are on the side of the strikers, and have refused to aid Mr. Vanderbilt in his dilemma.

For two days the Vanderbilts have been cooped up at Biltmore House, five miles from Biltmore village. Mr. and Mrs. Vanderbilt were unable to get to church Sunday. Mr. Vanderbilt takes up the collection at 'All Souls' at Biltmore, endowed by Mr. Vanderbilt. The strikers did not inform Mr. Vanderbilt of their intention to strike until just before church time, but they sent a committee Saturday night to see Mr. Vanderbilt to urge an increase in wages and shorter hours. Their demands were denied.

Mr. Vanderbilt has been cutting down expenses for the past year, doing away with hundreds of men on the estate, and virtually looking after things himself. Where there were twenty men at the Biltmore office, but one remains. Mr. Vanderbilt decided he would charge an admission to the Biltmore estate, whereas formerly all had been free. The revenues from this source amount to about $5,000 a year. In order to further curtail expenses, Mr. Vanderbilt did away with the heads of a number of the departments of the Biltmore estate, and said he would manage things himself.

He formerly sent carriages every Sunday for the members of his Biltmore choir, but decided to cut this out. They now go to church in a street car. Mr. Vanderbilt has been supplying Asheville with milk and butter and wood for years. He has advanced the prices on these articles.

The strikers have come into Asheville to await results.

Race Riots in Mississippi.

Two men were fatally wounded and over 500 shots were fired in a race riot at Wiggins, Miss., 35 miles south of Hattiesburg, Sunday afternoon and night. Wm. Smith, a negro, resisted arrest and fired on Marshal Quarrels and Deputy Mitchell, the latter receiving a fatal wound in the head.

Smith escaped to his home, barricaded the doors and windows and defied capture until a mob threatened to burn the house. After surrendering he was locked in the village jail. Late Sunday night a mob dynamited the jail, fired several volleys into his cell and left him for dead.

While the mob was stoning the jail a large crowd of negroes came upon the scene and began firing into the ranks of the besiegers. Over 500 shots were exchanged and D. M. Clarke, a white man, was fatally injured.

Several negroes are supposed to have been shot, but so far the total number of casualties has not been learned. Yesterday morning Smith was found alive in the jail, but his arms had to be amputated.

More Professors than Students.

Preparations have begun for the celebration next year of the centennial of Andover, Theological Seminary near Boston. There are only eleven students all told there now, but it has an endowment of $1,000,000, and its professors outnumber the students. In the century just closing, however, 2,168 students have been graduated, a majority of them entering the Congregational ministry. Last year only six gained a degree. During the last six years sixteen students were the highest enrolment for any one year. The present enrolment is termed the "sacred eleven" by the town boys.

THREATENED STRIKE.

It is thought that the recent strike of cigarmakers in Washington will be shortlived as all but three manufacturers have agreed to the demands of the men.

A manufacturer in an interview yesterday said: "I do not believe that all of the men were aware of the fact that the union had decided to ask an increase. I am safe in saying that, in fact, 25 per cent. of the men were ignorant of such a move. The men agitating the question got together and arranged the demands quietly, and did not call into conference the men who they thought would oppose the movement until it was too late for them to exert their power. With the increased price of tobacco and the ever-increasing demands of the union cigarmakers we are able to make but little on the goods we turn out. Take the average 5 cent cigar for example. I am paying my workmen from $9 to $10 a thousand to make them, while all the profit that falls my way is $1 per 1,000. There is hardly a living profit on that grade of cigars. It is up to the men whether the cigar manufactures of Washington will entirely close their factories and throw men out of employment or for the employers to maintain the open shop as I am seriously thinking of doing. The various members of the cigar manufacturing firms in town are to hold a meeting, and it is this meeting that will decide the question. I have already seen two manufacturers and they told me that when their present stock of tobacco is exhausted they will close up their shops and leave town."

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor and vice-president of the International Association of Cigarmakers, attended the meeting yesterday afternoon, at which a special assessment was requested from each member to go to the fund for the support of those men who are to be kept idle by the firms that still hold out. President Gompers told the men that they had the support of 150,000 fellow-workmen in the United States if the matter should come to be a general strike.

Messrs Hamilton & Company, of Alexandria, have granted the increase under the new price list formulated by the cigar makers union. This increase, the firm says, affects fifteen men.

Bank Robbed.

Robbery of the Farmers and Miners' Bank at Ladd, Illinois, a coal mining town three miles north of Spring Valley, took place yesterday afternoon.

At 2 o'clock two men drove up in a buggy. They were dressed as laborers, and wore big slouch hats. One had his face smeared black, and the other had a large piece of court plaster pasted on one side of his face. Inside the bank was James J. Hurly, the assistant cashier, alone. A gun was thrust against his face, with the orders to put up his hands or have his head blown off.

Hurly's hands at once went up. He was bound and gagged, carried into a side room, and locked up. One of the robbers stood guard at the bank entrance, while the second went about, leisurely gathering up all the cash in the desk and vaults. As there was a heavy miners' pay day on the 1st of the month, the deposits were unusually heavy, and the haul netted the robbers, it is estimated, about $20,000, mostly in currency. The booty was placed in a valise and the robbers drove away.

An hour later Cashier Zearing discovered the robbery, and the police of all the neighboring towns were notified. At 5 o'clock yesterday evening the robbers returned the rig they had hired of Liveryman Denny, at Peru, and he endeavored to arrest them, but they broke out of the barn, firing their revolvers at every one they saw, and escaped in the direction of La Salle. Their capture is expected.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Governor Swanson yesterday issued the following proclamation for the observance of Thanksgiving Day:

Whereas President Theodore Roosevelt has designated Thursday, Nov. 29, 1906, as Thanksgiving Day, in order that the people may express their love and gratitude to an all wise providence for the many blessings which He has bestowed upon this nation, therefore, I, Claude A. Swanson, governor of Virginia, in conformity with the proclamation of the president of the United States do appoint Thursday, Nov. 29, 1906, as Thanksgiving Day, and a holiday for this State, as prescribed by law.

As Virginia has been peculiarly blessed with prosperity, progress and good fortune during the past year, I do earnestly urge the people to give expression in a proper way of their profound appreciation of the many benefits and blessings which they have derived from a just and wise God.

Today's Telegraphic News

THE ELECTION TODAY.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 5.—Considering an apparent lack of interest a surprisingly large vote is being polled for Lamb. A direct test is being made between white and colored republicans for their congressional candidates and the latter is being badly beaten. Today's election will put the negro out of politics in this district. Latest information from out in the State indicates Slemp's return by a reduced majority in the Ninth and the pulling through of Saunders in the Fifth by a narrow lead. The election is going on quietly along the lines and no disturbances are so far reported.

New York, Nov. 6.—A record breaking vote is being polled here today. With a perfect day voters flocked to the polls in droves and district leaders predicted that the vote would be more than half in by eleven o'clock today. There was little betting today, though, a few wagers were made at the Hoffman House with Hughes a favorite over Hearst at four to one.

There was but little disorder. Sixteen persons were arrested charged with illegal voting.

The gubernatorial candidates voted early. Charles E. Hughes voted in a barber shop and Wm. R. Hearst cast his ballot in an undertaker's shop. A facetious wag remarked, Hughes by a close shave and Hearst among the dead.

Reports received at the Independence League state that an enormous vote is being cast in up-state manufacturing centres.

The League managers say that labor is standing solidly behind Hearst. They say Hearst will sweep the State.

Reports received by Mr. Clarence Shearn at the Independence League headquarters state that between 5,000 and 6,000 voters who cast their ballots this morning between the time the polls opened and 9 o'clock, because of a mistake on the part of the board of elections, were either precluded from casting their ballots at all or used the wrong ballots.

Although this does not affect the validity of their ballot so far as their votes for Governor is concerned, it precluded them from casting proper ballots for the choice of the senatorial, assembly and perhaps congressional candidates.

If the districts affected are far as Manhattan and Queens it may affect their ballot concerning the judiciary ticket.

Philadelphia, Nov. 6.—Intense interest in the election had the effect of bringing out a very large vote this morning. Voting is heavy all over the State and from indications the result will be close and not known until late. The campaign closed last night with much bitterness and rancor. The issue is the Penrose machine which received a bump last year when State Treasurer Berry, the fusion candidate, was elected. Berry delved into the State accounts and discovered large extravagances in the furnishing of the new State capitol. The democrats made those extravagances an issue and were joined by many republicans. Lewis Emery, jr., is the democratic candidate who has been endorsed by the Lincoln republicans.

Boston, Nov. 6.—The cry of treachery went up from the Moran headquarters today, before the polls had been open four hours. Granville S. MacFarland, who has been in charge of the Moran campaign was the one who raised it. "They are going to knife us sure," declared MacFarland, referring to the situation in Boston. He said that some of the "Old Guard" democrats were out to do his candidate.

The published estimate of Mayor Fitzgerald who says Moran will carry Boston, by 20,000 is not satisfactory.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Election day began with sunshine and balmy air, but later the sky became overcast, although the temperature remained pleasant. The official ballot this year contains the longest list of candidates ever offered at an election held in this country. The voters of each precinct will have to select their favored men from a list of 357 candidates and in a few precincts there will be more names to pick from.

The total number of candidates in the field, including all who are running for Congress, and the legislature in the different districts, is well over 100. If the expectations regarding split tickets be realized, there will be many a candidate go to bed tonight or tomorrow morning as much in the dark regarding his own fate as he was last night.

Baltimore, Nov. 6.—A heavy vote is being polled here today, and indications point to the election of Thomas I. Elliott, republican, for Judge of the Supreme Court; re-election of John Gill, (democrat), of the 4th Congressional district; J. F. C. Talbott (dem) of the 2nd district; Sydney E. Mudd, (rep) of the 5th district and the election of Harry E. Wolf (dem) in the Third district. The fight in the latter is very close.

Cincinnati, Nov. 6.—The weather is favorable for a heavy vote today. The rapidity with which the early vote was cast indicates that the voters as a rule are casting "straight" ballots. No disturbances have been reported.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 6.—There is no doubt as to the result in the State, the only question being as to the size of the republican plurality. Republicans bank on 40,000. There are several contests in congressional district but it is unlikely that the representation in Congress will be changed from 11 republicans to two democrats, although the democrats may elect a Congresman in the Second district.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Nov. 6.—This is the quietest State election ever held here. It is generally conceded that the republicans as usual will carry this country by a reduced majority.

Des Monies, Ia., Nov. 6.—The republicans concede the election to Congress of George Sloey in the First district and Dan Hamilton in the Sixth.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 6.—Indications from various parts of the State at noon were that the vote on the State ticket was about no normal for an off year election. The general feeling is that the republicans will elect their State ticket by the usual majority.

Rattlesnake Poison.

Boston, Nov. 6.—J. Brownell, of Revere, an expert in rattlers and the owner of nearly a thousand of them, takes exception to the claim of Professor L. A. Schwartz, of the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C., that a rattlesnake bite is not fatal. He challenges the Washington scientists to produce the man and he will produce the snake and will prove that science has slipped a cog on fact. He wishes that the test be public and that it take place in a public hall in Boston.

Suicide of a Machinist.

Kills His Wife and Himself.

Millboro, Va., Nov. 6.—The uninviting rocky fastness of Panther Gap, a hamlet about three miles east of Millboro, and near the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, was the scene of a fearful tragedy yesterday. Charles Hicks, who for some time has lived with his wife at his father-in-law's, a man named Forbus, had, it is charged, become too fond of his sister-in-law, a girl not over thirteen years of age. His mother-in-law told him he must find another home, and yesterday morning he was preparing to move to a house about a mile farther down the road. Hicks told his wife at 5 o'clock yesterday morning that he would walk to Goshen and meet her at the house when she arrived. The wife later found her husband at a house some distance from her parents' residence, and ascertained that he had not gone to Goshen. A quarrel between the man and woman is believed to have followed and that the wife started to return to her parents' home. Hicks overtook her ten feet from the house, placed the muzzle of his single barrel breech loader against her breast and fired, tearing a ghastly hole in her breast. He then removed the discharged shell, inserted another shell and fired another shot into her mangled body. He then sat down on the ground, his back against the body of his wife, inserted a fresh shell, placed the butt of the gun between his feet, the muzzle immediately over his heart, and with his hands pulled the trigger and shot himself through the heart. The parties were white, and of not very savory reputation. Hicks was generally regarded as a dangerous man. He was about thirty and his wife about twenty years of age.

Serious Conditions in Memphis.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 6.—Every policeman in the city defied the orders of Mayor Malone and obeyed the commands of Vice Mayor Walsh. Governor Cox will be appealed to to call out the militia to assume control of the election. Malone is supporting the reform legislative ticket and Walsh is with the liberals. The Mayor has the power in time when there is danger of riot to assume control of the police. When he tried to do so and reassign patrolmen Chief O'Hara refused to order his men to obey. The chief was suspended and Captain Hoary appointed chief. The men then walked out. Cox sides with the Malone element. After being chief less than two hours Oliver Perry resigned because he could not get men to obey him. He had previously been suspended by O'Hara who claims his suspension as chief is not legal. Sergeant Hays has been appointed chief by Mayor Malone and has caused a statement guaranteeing that he will make policemen obey him or forcibly remove their badges.

Bride Too Short.

New York, Nov., 6.—Two minutes after the marriage ceremony of Miss Margaret Gorman and Michael Harvills, she was deserted by the bridegroom. He is a six-footer and she is not quite five feet. During the courtship Harvilla did not notice the disparity in their relative heights, but when he stood at the altar he noticed it.

He rushed out of the church and the bride swooned. She dried her tears and went home. Toward evening the bridegroom appeared at the bride's home. He was sorry, he said, for what he had done, and said he considered her plenty tall enough for him. Margaret cried with joy, embraced and kissed him and sent notices for the guests to come to the belated festivities.

Death of Candidates.

New York, Nov. 6.—The campaign just closed, is said by experts to have been the most strenuous campaign in the history of America. It has cost the lives of five candidates who have succumbed from actual consumption of the life force. Rockwood Hoar, candidate for Congress in the Third Massachusetts district, died November 1; General John H. Ketcham, candidate for Congress in the Twenty-first New York district, died November 4; the funeral of William Hughes, judicial candidate in Brooklyn, was held yesterday, and William H. Minahan, independent candidate for Congressman in the Eighth Wisconsin district, died eight days before the election. Thomas Delaney, candidate for Assemblyman in Brooklyn, died November 2.

Another Mutiny.

Portsmouth, Eng., Nov. 6.—Another naval mutiny occurred in the barracks here last night, and as a result troops are being hurried here from several points. Warships in the harbor have also been ordered to make ready for the landing of an armed guard in case of further disturbances.

It has been years since there have been such mutinies in English naval barracks, and the outbreaks have alarmed the authorities who fear the whole garrison may be affected.

In the outbreak last night the rioters attacked the officers' quarters and broke all the windows. They were not subdued until many had been arrested and several were badly beaten.

Will Rear Hogs.

Berlin, Nov. 6.—Charlottenberg, the aristocratic suburb of Berlin, has hit upon a novel scheme which will be tried in the effort to overcome the hardships of the meat famine. It proposes to go into the hog rearing business on a large scale. The municipality is preparing to collect thousands of swine and fatten them on household garbage. It is expected the example will be widely followed. Charlottenberg, besides the usual palaces, containing more mansions of millionaires than any other town in Germany. Despite the objections of some aristocratic residents, the municipality intends, however, to carry its plan into execution.

Railroad Accident.

Youngstown, O., Nov. 6.—A passenger train on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad bound west, during the fog this morning collided with a wrecking train near the city, which had just been clearing up another wreck. Edward Sebell, engineer of the passenger train, was killed, and Herman Edwards, fireman, suffered a fracture in his right leg. Two others train men were slightly injured. None of the passengers was hurt. The property loss is reported heavy.

Work of a Dynamiter.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 6.—Last night unknown men placed a dynamite bomb in the scale house underneath the tipple of the Elm Grove coal works, six miles east of here. When a fire was kindled today an explosion followed, completely wrecking the scale house and partly dismantling the tipple. No one was injured. Labor troubles are supposed to have been at the bottom of the outrage. The company refused to adopt a scale when a strike was called off last summer and Monday it started up with non-union men.

Wages to be Increased.

Reading, Pa. Nov. 6.—Following closely on the announcement of the Reading Railway's ten per cent wage advance, the Reading Iron Company, which is controlled by the former, issued a statement to the effect that the wages will be advanced in all departments owing to improved market conditions. The puddlers of the company have been on strike since July 1, following the refusal of the demand of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel and Tin Workers, for an increase.

Explosion in Iron Works.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 6.—The big engine at the Whitaker Iron Works exploded today tearing down a large portion of the mill buildings, and completely wrecking three mills of the tin department so that they will have to be rebuilt.

The big wheel weighed many tons and sections of it dropped about the city, a thousand feet from where the explosion occurred. No one was injured.

The Election Today.

As had been anticipated, the election today has been quiet. The polls were opened at the usual places at sunrise and will be closed at sunset. The banks and some public offices were closed, and the barrooms were supposed to be temporarily out of business. The vote cast up to four o'clock this afternoon was as follows:

The vote at 8:30 o'clock stood as follows: First ward, 150; Second, 158; Third, 131; Fourth, 109.

But few colored men voted.

The Stone-Leterman Wedding.

At the spacious and elegant mansion of Mr. and Mrs. P. Leterman, 216 east High Street, Charlottesville, occurred an event last evening that proved of interest to many people in the State of Virginia, New York, Baltimore and other cities, when Miss Hortense Leterman became the bride of Mr. Samuel Stone, of New York city.

The magnificent lawn was illuminated with gas jets and electric arc lights, and the large and handsome edifice lighted with gas and numberless glowing candles and the parlors, drawing room and hall elaborately and artistically decorated with a profusion of magnificent palms, ferns, bride roses and white chrysanthemums. The large bay window of the parlor, banked with palms, ferns and cut flowers, set in a frame of white chrysanthemums, and illuminated with glowing adamantine candles, and soft electric bulbs, served as the marriage altar.

At 8 o'clock, as Miss Eva Cleveland, who presided at the piano, played Lobengrin's wedding march, the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father, a vision of loveliness, attired in white satin en train, duchess lace, carrying a shower bouquet of brides rose and lilies of the valley, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, his brother, Mr Joseph Stone, of New York. Dr. E. N. Calisch, the Rabbi, of Richmond officiated.

Following the ceremony a reception and a grand supper was given, which was prepared and served by Mr. Stern, a well known Baltimore caterer, and which was partaken of by two hundred invited guests, many of whom were from out of town.

The bride is a beautiful and accomplished young lady of the semi-brunette type, and completed her education at Arlington Institute, Alexandria. She is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Leterman, of Charlottesville, and grand daughter of ex-Mayor Henry Strauss, of Alexandria.

The groom is a wealthy broker of the New York Stock Exchange, and a young man of prominence in the business circles of New York city.

Among the visiting guests from a distance were Hon. Henry Strauss, of Alexandria; Mr. and Mrs. A. Stone, Mrs. L. Newberger, Mr. Joseph Stone, the Misses Newberger, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hanline, Mr. and Mrs. C. Slush, Messrs. Liberman and Lewine, of New York; Mrs. Sam Kaufman, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. H. Lowenberg and Miss Julia Kaufman, of Norfolk; Mr. George Dreyfus, of Shreeveport, La.; Miss Weinberg, Miss Dettlebach, and Miss Newhan, of Baltimore; Dr. David Frankel, of Hampton; Mrs. James Sharpe Farnem, of Charleston, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. L. Lagarus, Miss Estelle Lagarus and Mrs. David Goodman, of Lynchburg; Miss Nettie Eiseman, of Brooklyn; Mrs. Arthur Kaufman, of Philadelphia; and many others from Richmond and other cities. The wedding presents were many, handsome and costly. Mr. and Mrs. Stone after an extended tour of the southern and western states, will make their home in New York.

Suicide of an Alexandrian.

Randolph Webb Elliott, son of Mr. Henry Elliott, of this city, committed suicide in Washington yesterday by inhaling gas from a small stove. The notive which prompted the rash act has not been definitely disclosed. He left a note addressed to an intimate friend. "I am tired of life," are the only words the friend would admit was in the missive. It is, however, hinted that a love affair was preying on the young man's mind. The deceased was 21 years old, and was well-known in Alexandria, where he had spent most of his life. He was at one time employed an the electric railway, and had, until recently, been employed by the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company, but was laid off not long ago, because of the scarcity of work, and it is possible that he became despondent for this reason. Several of his friends state that he had seemed much downcast because of the temporary loss of his position, and they believed that constant brooding over his trouble wrought him up to the pitch of taking his life.

Elliott had been living at the home of Mrs. J. H. Bowles on G street, northeast, Washington. Shortly after six o'clock last evening Mrs. Bowles went to the room of her son, Aggie Bowles, to awaken him after a short nap. When she entered the room it was filled with the odor of gas so strongly that she was almost overcome. The gas came from a small stove in the room. She saw huddled on a bed a figure, clad in a bath robe, which she recognized as her son, and, almost paralyzed with fear, she escaped from the room and telephoned for Dr. Elliott, telling him her son was overcome with gas.

When the latter arrived he was, horrified to find that the dead man instead of being Aggie Bowles, was his own brother.

The parents of the deceased are at present in Philadelphia.

Fire.

The alarm of fire shortly after ten o'clock this morning was caused by the discovery of a blaze on the roof of a house on the north side of Duke street, between Patrick and Henry. The flames were subdued by extinguishers. The fire is supposed to have been caused by a defective flue.

The steamer Dennis Simmons, from Williamston, N. C., with lumber to Smoot & Co. and H. K. Field & Co., arrived yesterday.

Looking for Factory Facilities.

Representatives of the manufacturing house of Scheinman Bros. & Epman, of Brooklyn, were in Alexandria today looking for a suitable building in which to place a branch of their plant. This firm manufactures children's clothing, and it is the desire of the members of the firm to start a manufactory in Alexandria provided they can secure a suitable building and be assured that they can procure the number of young women needed. Should the factory be located here about two hundred operatives will be required at renumerative wages. Alexandria could furnish most of the young women required, while many of this class in nearby towns and the rural districts adjoining Alexandria would doubtless avail themselves of the opportunity to secure suitable employment. The representatives of the firm referred to visited Washington in order to ascertain the average wages paid young women as typewriters, seamstresses, clerks in stores, &c., in that city, and were convinced that they could pay equally as good wages.

Deaths.

Capt. Richard Tull, for many years a well known steamboat captain on the Potomac river and Chesapeake bay, died recently while mate of the lightship stationed on the Tail of the Horseshoe in lower Chesapeake bay. Captain Tull was at one time mate on the steamer John Gibson, running between this city and New York. He later commanded the steamer Norfolk of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company. About three years ago he accepted an appointment in the lighthouse service.

Mr. Orlando F. Mattingly, for a long time a proofreader of the government printing office in Washington, died Saturday evening in that city. While the mediate cause of death was Bright's disease, of which he had been a sufferer for a number of years, it is thought that the end was hastened by a fall he had five weeks ago, in which his leg was fractured. Mr. Mattingly was a native of Alexandria, where he was born December 15 1839.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Frank Williams, colored, arrested by Constable Cornell charged with lunacy, was detained for the action of the county authorities.

Ollie Lear, colored, arrested by Officers Bell and Henderson charged with being drunk and disorderly, was dismissed.

Bettie Holmes, colored, arrested by Officers Ferguson and Arrington charged with abusive language toward Carrie Washington, was dismissed.

George T. Preston, colored, arrested by Officers Knight and Lyles charged with assault, was held for the Washington authorities.

Opera House.

The Earl Burgess Company opened a week's engagement at the Opera House last night to a packed house, standing room being at a premium. The play presented last night was the interesting melodrama, "Darkest Russia," in which the characters were excellently portrayed. The company is composed of a large number of clever people and shows of unusual merit may be expected this week. The specialties were very good and will be changed each night. Tonight the company will produce the five-act military drama, "A Daughter of the South." Tomorrow night the attraction will be the stirring melodrama, "Queen of the White Slaves," Mr. Raymond Paine, an Alexandria favorite, is with the company.

Disorders.

A colored man named Ollie Lear, caused some excitement on lower Prince street last night by crying "police. help," &c. Several men who heard his cries went in the direction from which they emanated, when Lear fled towards King street. The man was arrested by Officers Bell and Henderson and brought before Justice Caton this morning. It appeared that Lear had been drinking and imagined he was in danger. He was dismissed.

A row occurred in a house at the western end of Wilkes street last night. Cries of "police" were heard, but no arrests were made.

Assaulted by a Colored Man.

George T. Preston, colored, formerly a resident of this city, who for some time has been an elevator conductor in the government printing office in Washington, became incensed at a fellow-workman a few days ago and struck him with an iron bar. The injured man was removed to a hospital where his condition became grave. It is thought that his skull is fractured. Preston has been suspended from the government printing office. Preston was arrested in this city this morning by Officers Knight and Lyles and is held for the action of the Washington authorities.

Circuit Court for the City.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

J. Louis Loose vs. Southern Railway Co.; a suit for $20,000 for damages alleged to have been done to the plaintiff's greenhouses and gardens by smoke, cinders, etc., from the defendant company's engines, machine shops, etc; jury and case in progress. The company was represented by Messrs. Tunstall, of Norfolk, and Carlin and Cooper, of this city, and the plaintiff by Messrs. Norton and Boothe.

Some difficulty was experienced in securing a jury, the first venire having been exhausted before a sufficient number of jurymen had been selected.

Confederate Veterans.

R. E Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, held their regular monthly meeting at their hall last night. Several communications of a private nature were read and acted upon. Gen. G. W. C. Lee was elected an honorary member of the camp. The honorary list of the camp now consists of the following: Capt. W. F. Dement, Capt. S. B. Davis, Col. Elijah V. White, Maj. John W. Daniel, Capt. W. Gordon McCabe, Col. J. A. deLagnel, Gen. G. W. C. Lee.

The honorary members of the camp who have died were President Davis, Gen. W. H. F. Lee, Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, and Gen. Jubal Early.

End of Machinists' Strike.

H. B. Spencer, general manager of the Southern Railway; James O'Connell, president of the International Association of Machinists, and the members of the committee representing machinists, employed by the Southern Railway were in conference at the machinists' headquarters in Washington yesterday, and a final arrangement was made for arbitrating the wage demands of the recent strike.

As was stated in the Gazette, the machinists, who have been idle for more than a month, returned to work yesterday morning under the agreement reached at the New York conference last week. The question of increased wages will be settled by a board of arbitration.

The board is to be composed of three members, one representing the railway company and one the machinists, these two to select the third member.

About five hundred nonunion men who were employed to take the places of the strikers in the shops at Alexandria, Richmond, Spencer, Knoxville, Atlanta, and other points have been discharged and paid off.

All the machinists who had previously been employed in the shops in this city are now at work. It was said this morning that more of the machinery would soon be removed from Alexandria to Monroe, and that the force here would be reduced to four machinists and their helpers.

Personal.

Captain Peter Geoghegan, who a few years ago commanded the steamer Norfolk of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, is critically ill at his home on Eastern Shore of Maryland.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated in Richmond yesterday when Miss Mabel Dashiell Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hezekiah Harris, became the bride of Mr Andrew Cecil Adams. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Adams left for Alexandria to spend a few days.

Miss Maggie Micou and Mr. Clarence Bagot were quietly married Saturday evening at the parsonage of Trinity Methodist Church by Rev. J. A. Jeffers.

Miss Jessie Armstrong is the guest of Miss Elise Bevan Miller in Baltimore.

Turkey's Way of Raising Revenue.

The land in all Turkey and her dependencies belongs to the reigning sultan and is only occupied at his will. It is divided among those who wish to cultivate it at a nominal rental of one-fifth of the produce, which goes directly to the crown. Three-fifths more are taken from the lessee on other pretexts, all for the maintenance of the government, the pasha in each district having the authority to lease the ground and collect the taxes, which may be in kind or money. If crops are short, they take four-fifths of all the man has in animals and even in household utensils, sometimes all his possessions, to make up the deficiency which Providence has withheld. Everything that can produce, be it a tree, beast, fowl, worm or the labor of a man and his family, is subject to the four-fifths tax. Those who toil at any labor or trade other than agriculture are taxed also pro rata according to their wages and must pay or go to prison.—Pearson's Weekly.

How to Remove a Corn; Try It.

Expose the corn and pass the finger tips of your right hand over it slowly and caressingly, at the same time sending a vibration from the brain to the corn. If it is a soft corn 413 vibrations per second will suffice; if a hard corn, put on a forced draft. Repeat slowly, "I am now sending a current of thought force into my corn and so separating, deducing, disintegrating, rendering, splitting, sundering, splintering, snipping, dwellicating, whittling, dispersing, dislocating, eliding, divorcing, pulverizing, slashing, slicing and dissecting it that presently it will pass away. Repeat it three times; then, with rising inflection, "Avaunt, avaunt, avaunt!" Finish by repeating the password: "The universe is mine. I am it." The corn will at first look extremely surprised, then wilt and fade beautifully from sight.—New Thought.

A Nice Distinction.

A well known Atlantan has a wife with a sharp tongue. Jones had come home about 2 in the morning rather the worse off for a few highballs. As soon as he opened the door his wife, who was waiting for him in the accustomed place at the top of the stairs, where she could watch his uncertain ascent, started upbraiding him for his conduct. Jones went to bed and when he was almost asleep could hear her still scolding him unmercifully. He dropped off to sleep and awoke after a couple of hours, only to hear his wife remark, "I hope all the women don't have to put up with such conduct as this." "Annie," said Jones, "are you talking again or yet?"—Kansas City Star.

Clams' Eggs.

The clam's eggs are carried by the mother on her gills. When there are fish in the water with them the mother clams discharge the eggs which soon hatch, but if there are no fish they carry the eggs until they decay. The reason of this strange behavior is this: When the eggs are set free in the water they soon hatch and the little ones swim about until they find some fish to which to attach themselves. They live for a time on the mucus of the fish and then drop off, sink to the bottom and form burrows for themselves. This curious semiparasitic life is no doubt a reversion to the habit of some ancient ancestor.

One Man's Wisdom.

Green—Who was it that said, "Let me make the songs of a nation and I care not who makes its laws?" Brown—I don't know the man's name, but he was a wise guy, all right. Green—Because why? Brown—Because it is possible to evade the laws, but one can't get away from the songs, especially when they become popular. —Chicago News.

The Price of Vanity.

"What became of that life guard who had forty-one medals for saving people's lives?"

"The poor fellow fell out of a launch with them all on and the combined weight sank him."—Minneapolis Journal.

Fortunate Missourians.

"When I was a druggist, at Livonia, Mo.," writes T. J. Dwyer, now of Graysville, Mo., "three of my customers were permanently cured of consumption by Dr. King's New Discovery, and are well and strong today. One was trying to sell his property and move to Arizona, but after using New Discovery a short time he found it unnecessary to do so. I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as the most wonderful medicine in existence." Surest Cough and Cold cure and Throat and Lung healer. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists, 50c and $1.
